Puraskarams

(Details for sending entries)

The objective for instituting these awards by Sri Ahobila Mutt Mysore is to spread concepts on Sanata darma among present generation who are exposed to technology-driven living and Science-based reasoning. It is generally believed that at the spiritual level there are many meeting grounds between Vigyana sastra (Science) and Veda sastra. It would be in the interest of every one to bring out such points of confluence in a simple and cogent manner for the benefit of present and future generations of Indians wherever they live. This present effort of Sri Ahobila Mutt Mysore is in this direction.

There is no word limit for contributions and contributors are expected to send their entries not later than 30th June 2022 to the following mail ID:

president@sriahobilamuttmysore.in

Contributors are advised to provide details of their name, full postal address, telephone number(s), mail ID, a good clarity photo and a brief bio data. Further, contributors have to fill the attached form transferring copyright of their contribution to Srimatam.

A selection committee comprising scientists and Vedic scholars would scrutinize entries and inform the successful authors chosen for these awards by August 2022.

The decision of the committee is final and binding on all participants. Participants are also advised to go through the FAQ before submitting entry.
